7. COMMONWEALTH GAMES DURBAN 2022 BIDDING UPDATE (13/2/1/1/1)
(Page L4)

COMMITTEE RECOMMENDS:

- 7.1 That Council approves an amount of R17.5 Million for professional and design fees to be paid to Sport and Recreation South Africa towards the Durban bid for the 2022 Commonwealth Games.
- 7.2 That Council approves an estimated amount of R500 000.00 (Five Hundred Thousand Rand Only) towards the outbound and inbound visits which includes hosting of delegates, travelling and lobbying meetings associated with the Games.
- 7.3 That subject to the approval of .1 and .2 above, Council approves that the costs referred to be funded by savings to be identified through adjustment budget, Vote No.: 10345.105573.
- 7.4 That Council approves the travelling and participation of His Worship the Mayor, Councillor James Nxumalo and two officials for the official submission of the Durban bid in London on 2015-03-02.

As some Councillors were not in support of the above recommendations of the Executive Committee, based on the huge financial implications associated with the hosting of the Common Wealth Games, the matter was put to the vote. With 163 Councillors present, 123 Councillors (ANC – 99, MF - 7, NFP – 4, IFP – 8, ACDP – 2, COPE – 1, APC – 1 and IND - 1) voted in favour and 40 Councillors (DA) voted against. There were no abstentions recorded.

The above recommendations of the Executive Committee were, by majority, ADOPTED.
