

THIRD SUICIDE UNDER 90-DAY LAW.

On September 9 last a 14-year-old boy in Johannesburg, looking up at the notorious building 'the Grays' which is the S. African Special Branch headquarters, saw a tall Indian stand for a second at a window on the 7th floor. Then the man jumped into space, and a moment later three white men peered out of the window. The Indian, SULIMAN SALOOJEE, fell onto a parapet outside the 1st floor, and received fatal injuries from which he died while on his way to hospital.

Although the Chief of the Security Police has admitted that Mr Saloojee jumped from the window, and that he must have been under interrogation at the time, we are never likely to know what precise form of torture was being inflicted on him.
